1. Purpose

As a registered higher education provider, S P Jain School of Global Management (S P Jain) is committed to ensuring that all members of the S P Jain community enjoy and uphold an environment that is collegial, safe and respectful. The School is committed to ensuring that all staff carry out their duties as employees of S P Jain with levels of professional conduct that reflects the School’s commitment to well-being, integrity and honesty.

This Code of Conduct outlines the expectations and responsibilities of all staff at S P Jain as employees of the School and should be read in conjunction with the approved policies of the School, and in the context of any provisions or requirements as set out in individual contracts.

2. Scope

This Code applies to all employees of the School regardless of the type, length or nature of their employment.

3. Code Conduct

a. Personal and Professional Behaviour

All staff must:

- i. Uphold and maintain the reputation and goals of the School and act in its best interest;
- ii. Demonstrate a commitment to professional standards in teaching and learning, research, administration and industry involvement;

- iii. Observe and obey the laws of all jurisdictions where the staff member is employed across the School's multi-city campuses including respecting local governance laws relating to standards of dress;
- iv. Work diligently, cooperatively, collegially and respectfully with all members of the S P Jain community including respecting the intellectual freedom of other staff, students and any associate or partner of the School;
- v. Behave in a professional manner at all times and act with objectivity, integrity and fairness in decisions made in the course of duties to the School;
- vi. Comply with all the School's policies, statutory obligations and any other relevant code of practice;
- vii. Communicate professionally and respectfully with all members of the School's community and not disseminate information which is offensive, threatening, harassing, discriminatory, or that could harm the School's reputation or the reputation of others;
- viii. Maintain and enhance their skills, scholarship and expertise, and to keep current the knowledge associated with their particular field or area of work;
- ix. Respect the School's property, resources, systems and records and maintain confidentiality where relevant and required;
- x. While employed by the School and executing duties as part of each role, not use that time for private gain or other activities external to the School;
- xi. Not abuse the position held with the School to unduly influence others or enter into relationships that may affect the power balance of those relationships;
- xii. Declare any real or potential conflicts of interest that may reasonably be thought to conflict with or influence judgements made during the course of the professional duties of staff, and perceptions that an unfair benefit may have been attained;
- xiii. Not accept outside work or employment that may negatively affect their duties and in the case of full-time staff, not accept outside work without approval from their supervisor or manager;
- xiv. Uphold principles of natural justice and procedural fairness when making decisions and ensure that all decisions are made in timely fashion;
- xv. Report breaches of professional or behavioural conduct immediately to supervisors or managers.

b. Well-being and Safety

All staff must:

- i. Take every precaution, as reasonable in the circumstances to protect the health, safety and welfare of all those in the workplace;
- ii. Comply with the relevant Workplace, Health and Safety legislation that applies in their jurisdiction and relevant Codes of Practice;
